

Status Disclosures

Please find below the appropriate status disclosures that you will need to use and display as an FCA authorised firm.

It is important that your website has the correct disclosures relating to your FCA authorisation at all times and it is advisable to have the disclosure on the home page and on the 'finance page' if the website has one.

The correct disclosures should also appear on your letterhead and emails, although this only requires the first sentence from the disclosure to appear.
